REFLECTIONS

In commemoration of the NPAA's 50th Anniversary Exhibition at Mercyhurst University's Cummings Gallery, John Vanco, Mary Rosiak, and Dan Burke open the evening by speaking about and reflecting on the original inspirations and motivations that led to the origin of the NPAA in 1974. Their observations and recollections helped to capture the spirit of that initial group of seven Founding Members. Little did they know that those "living room discussions" would culminate in a night fifty years later where we would all gather to celebrate the golden anniversary of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Artists Association. Looking forward to the next fifty years and the centennial celebration of the NPAA in the year 2074.
